

April Wine Feature

NORTHERN ITALIAN WINES

FUSO + FEDERICO RUSSO 'TÈH' ROSSO PIEMONTE

Red Blend
Piemonte Region, Italy

Certified Organic blend of at least 60% Barbera. The White marine limestone and sandy soils accent Tèh's punchy raspberry fruit profile with an aspirin-chalk stamp. A palpable tension on the mid-palate – between Barbera's vertical acidity and Freisa and Grignolino's grippy tannins - remind of the Italian saying semplice ma non banale: 'simple but not boring'. Such is the way of 'Tèh,' a humble Rosso Piemonte wine with both soil and grape variety clearly etched.

FERDINANDO PRINCIPIANO LANGHE NEBBIOLO 2019

Barolo Red
Piemonte Region, Italy

The grapes that go into this Langhe Nebbiolo are not just Barolo grapes, but all of the grapes from Cru vineyards. Elevage ends up a bit different than the Barolo wines; the development includes a two week maceration, followed by six to eight months in stainless steel.

FUSO + COL DI LUNA 'FLORA' PROSECCO BRUT NV

Brut Prosecco
Veneto, Italy

Made in Italy's Veneto province from 15-30 year-old Glera vines in conversion to organic. Developed to "brut" dryness level, meaning the product contains less than 2g of sugar. This makes for a fresh, vibrant and affordable sparkling wine.

VIGNETI MASSA TERRA ROSSO

Barbera Red
Piemonte Region, Italy

Cement-fermented 100% Barbera, made by eccentric, fourth generation winemaker Walter Massa. Working in the hills around the southeast Piedmontese city of Tortona (Colli Tortonesi), Walter is a dynamic advocate for his neighborhood.

BULLI 'CÖR' COLLI PIACENTINI ROSSO NV

Red Blend
Emilia-Romagna Region, Italy

Still red blend (Barbera/Bonarda/Uva Rara) from Leonardo Bulli. Small family estate, rustic and fruity red. No C20 added to this field blend. This wine has a rustic minerality and saltiness to it. This is a no-nonsense wine; simple, but certainly not boring.

DENNY BINI FESTA

Sparkling Lambrusco
Emilia-Romagna Region, Italy

Certified organic classic sparkling Lambrusco from Emilia-Romagna. This wine has depth to the fruit, since Denny works so carefully in the vineyard: sweet-sour berries, with that classic Emilian bitter note on the finish.